

Denver Singles Golf

Denver Chapter - American Singles Golf Association — May 2026

KENNEDY PAR 3 - MAY 20TH

President

The grand poobah finds it encouraging to see most of the May golf events filled up quickly. City Park filled up in just a few hours. Be sure to get onto the wait list if you miss the initial sign up period - things happen and many times people still make it into the event. Set a reminder for the sign up opening as listed in each event on Meetup. Have fun out there and hit them straight!

~Mark Johnson

Membership Chair

Well May is here and that means the golf season has begun. It's time for us to get out to the golf courses and start playing some golf. I am so excited for all of the golf and social events that are planned for this year. Speaking of golf events, our event Chairs have been very active getting things scheduled for the season. Lots of events to choose from, so hopefully we will see you at one or more of them!

During the month of April we have had 21 renewed memberships and 5 new members joined our organization. Please make our newest members feel welcome; including Kirstan Bushard, Beth Nance, Jamie Rech, Dani Redman, and Susan Short. We are so glad you are here and will be enjoying the season with use on the courses! I also want to thank the 21 people who renewed their membership and will be enjoying another golf season with us. New members be sure your MeetUp profile has notices sent to your smart phone so you will know when events are posted! For help with MeetUp, talk to myself or any Board member.

~Albert Brahm, Membership Chair

18 Hole Chair

Well, the summer "swinging" season is upon us, and I'm really excited for all the great events we have lined up!

Our first 18-hole event is at Applewood in Golden. The course is in supposedly great shape, with a reasonable green fee. This is a pre-paid event, reservations close on May 11th.

We have several upcoming 18-hole events at Denver Golf courses, and we are using our system from last year to reserve tee times at a lower rate, but we cannot open registration until 13 days before the event, so mark your Calendar for those events.

Have fun, hope to see you on the course!

~Doug Steebner, 18 Hole Chair

9 Hole Chair

It's finally that time of year... golf is here and ready for another great year. We've posted most of our golf events and some are opening up for RSVP's so make sure to mark your calendars.

The City Park FAC that is on Friday, May 29th has opened and is already full but don't stop from getting on the wait list, you never know who might cancel or i might try and get more tee times.

The Pinery 9 & Dine that is on Monday, June 8th is opening up on Monday, May 4th at 12pm so make sure not to miss this one. The cost is only $85 that includes golf, range balls, cart rental and a buffet dinner after golf so make sure to be there!!

Next, I have the Fox Hollow SAC on

Par 3's

Our first event is at Kennedy Par 3 on Wed 5/20 and it is filling up fast. It's a fun course for beginners and experienced golfers. We also have Harvard Gulch Par 3 on Wed 6/17, RSVP opens on 5/6. More fun events later in the year and most of them are now on Meetup. We hope to see you on the links soon.

~Dave Pineda

Lone Tree Mid-Week

On May 27th, we start another season of nine and wine at our beloved Lone Tree Golf Course. Come on out and enjoy an evening of nine holes and some socializing with a beer and food afterwards.

~Bob Crossman

Social Chair

Happy May! I hope you can make our spring kick-off social on Saturday May 2nd, 2-5pm at the Southglenn Country Club. Come join us for this popular event to meet your fellow members, have some food, drink, games, give aways and lots of great raffle prizes, it's sure to be a great time! Please sign up ASAP and send in your $10 to reserve your spot if you haven't already. For those who signed up and paid for golf this will follow the social starting about 5:30. I'll be scheduling another game night in May so keep your eye on Meetup for this event. There are some golf outings this month so be sure to sign up for those! Hope to see you soon!

Rules of Golf Review: I just played the wrong ball. What do I do now?

By Ron Kaspriske, GolfDigest.com

There's a reason enlightened players carry a Sharpie in their golf bag. Identifying that the ball you're about to play is actually yours is like Golf 101, right? Yes, but it seems playing the wrong ball happens a lot more frequently than you might expect.

Arguably the worst wrong-ball disaster in recent memory happened to Mark Hensby when he was assessed a 10-stroke penalty—yep 10 strokes—for playing a wrong ball in the 2021 Palmetto Championship.

You're not alone if you've mistakenly played someone else's ball. (We'll get into incidents when a golfer intentionally plays someone else's ball a little later in this article. That happens, too).

So how do you proceed if you accidentally play a wrong ball? Under Rule 6.3c, in match play you lose the hole. In stroke play, it's a two-shot penalty and you must correct the mistake by going back and playing your ball to finish the hole. If your ball is gonzo, proceed under the stroke-and-distance penalty (yes, that means a third extra stroke to your score, sorry!)

This rule is pretty easy to understand, but let's take a slightly deeper look at a few wrong-ball scenarios that often happen. One is when opponents in match play happen to hit each other's golf balls. The way to handle this situation is to assess the loss-of-hole penalty to the player who hit the wrong ball first. If you and your opponent aren't sure who hit first, there is no penalty and you should play out the hole with each other's golf balls.

And to reiterate the stroke-play procedure, you're only hit with a two-stroke penalty for playing a wrong ball no matter how many strokes you take on a given hole with it. However, if you start the next hole with the wrong ball, that's when you're DQ'd. (FYI: The reason Hensby wasn't DQ'd was because the tournament was using Model Local Rule G-4 allowing for a two-shot penalty on each hole where the player used a wrong ball.)

Oh, and if you're wondering what happens to a golfer who intentionally plays a wrong ball and is caught, well, Rule 1.2 covers it. That player should start walking toward the parking lot.

What Do We Get for Our Dues?

Here's a Reminder:

SinglesGolf.com/benefits

Your chapter newsletter follows after the following pages . . .

ASGA Annual Dues are $99.00. Do you want LOWER DUES?

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE ONE YEAR OF FREE DUES?

You likely joined the American Singles Golf Association because you wanted to meet more singles and play more golf. We can't help you with your golf swing, however, we're on a mission to grow your chapter's membership. Golf season is upon us . . . are you onboard to grow your chapter or are you satisfied with your current membership level?

Here's the plan:

- 1) on the following page, you'll see a revised "Single? Play Golf?" sign. It now has five (5) tear-off tabs instead of eight (8).
- 2) You write-in your identification (either your member number or first initial + last name) on each of the tabs. Use scissors to cut the tabs apart.
- 3) You print as many signs as you wish, keep them in the front seat of your car along with some push pins and post them anywhere you're permitted to post, e.g. golf shop bulletin boards, golf shop restrooms, driving ranges, stores, etc. If you would like ASGA National to print five (5) yellow signs for you, please let us know by emailing Irene@SinglesGolf.com or calling 980-833-6450 from 9am-1:45pm, M-F, Eastern.
- 4) For every three (3) people who join using your name or ID on the yellow sign, you'll receive 12-months of ASGA membership. Note: your name or member number, as the referrer, must be submitted with the new member's application. No exceptions. No retroactivity. Please do not add your own name to an application form. It must be completed only the by the member currently joining and completing the application.
- 5) New members can join over the phone, at our website (SinglesGolf.com/join), fax, etc., however, they MUST use your member number or name at the time of joining as the person who referred the new member. Again, no exceptions to this policy.
- 6) ASGA National will keep track of how many new members you get credit for and will automatically add 12-months to your membership. Please, no slanting of these rules

Be a Hero in Your Chapter.
Get the signs printed and get them hanging!
*(and remind others to participate)

SINGLE? PLAY GOLF?

The Denver Chapter of the American Singles Golf Association WANTS YOU!

We're 2,500 members in 50 cities and we're ALL ABOUT HAVING FUN! So if you're single (i.e. divorced, widowed, legally separated or never married) and enjoy meeting others through the game of golf, you're invited to inquire about joining by calling the American Singles Golf Association at 1-888-465-3628 (1-TRIPLE-EIGHT-GOLFMATE) or visit SinglesGolf.com.

IN ADDITION, WE CAN SEND YOU FREE BUSINESS CARDS!

As you have seen from the previous two (2) pages of this newsletter, ASGA National is committed to seeing your chapter grow. We believe by asking each individual member for help, your chapter will grow its membership.

Besides using the yellow signs to gain more members in your local chapter, upon request we will also provide you with ASGA business cards. More can be sent to you if needed, but we'll start out by sending you half a dozen business cards that you can give to anyone you believe might be a potential member. Are you out and about and see someone wearing a golf shirt or hat? Start a conversation: tell them you're a part of a local club for singles who play golf and simply ask "are you single?" Even if they aren't, chances are they know a golfer who is. Give them a card that's pre-filled with you name (or member #) and contact info.

Remember, you get free dues for referring 3 new folks who join!

They don't come to you automatically, you'll have to order them. E-mail Irene@SinglesGolf or call 980-833-6450 (9am—1:30pm, Eastern Tues-Thurs) for your free cards.
