RECAPS

Crossvines

ASGA was given a fall welcome of cool, cloudy weather, however, that Nor'easter cut our round short. We finished between 12-15 holes and the course gave rain checks for 18 holes. We gathered for an early dinner at Bassett's and left the restaurant while still daylight.

CTP winners:
Greg Basheda Hole 3
Francine Vigliotti Hole 8

Musket Ridge

It rained on the way to the course and on the way home, but we had a beautiful fall day. Nine of us (eight members and a guest) enjoyed a fun day. No CTP contests except among the threesomes. Most of us enoyed dinner at the course.

You should have been there!

~BJ

Williamsburg

Sixteen strong we headed out last Friday morning for our weekend in Williamsburg. The Blue Heron course at Ford's Colony was our first destination.

After dinner and a good night's rest, our destination was the ever-challenging Colonial Heritage golf course. Dinner was at the Fat Tuna Grill and Oyster House, and we had great atmosphere, food and service.

Alas, rain greeted us Sunday morning, and the Kingsmill Resort River course issued us rain checks.

We will return next year!

I'm A Female Golf Pro And These Are 7 Things That Men Can Learn From Women'

Top 50 Coach Katie Dawkins highlights the things that male golfers can learn from women to help improve their game

By Katie Dawkins
Published 9 February 2024In Features

So often when I'm coaching men they talk about being able to swing it like Rory or Tiger. The reality is that these guys are supreme athletes and physically capable of getting into positions in the golf swing most mortals can only dream of.

Instead of gazing in the direction of the PGA Tour, men should look at how women play the game and what they can learn from the fairer approach. The more switched-on chaps will comment that they do indeed prefer watching the women play on the LPGA and LET tours. This isn't so much because there's more skin on show, but instead they see the golf of Georgia Hall more repeatable than trying to mimic John Rahm's sheer Minotaur-esque power. Here are my 7 key things men can learn from the way women play golf.

THE NEED FOR SPEED DOESN'T MEAN A LOWER SCORE

It's not all about the fastest swing speed. A woman's slower swing speed has its advantages and this is worth thinking about if you're someone who is a bit erratic off the tee. Slower swing speeds mean there will be less spin imparted on the ball. Women can swing at their drives with an upward angle of attack compared to most guys who hit down on it at professional level.

UP YOUR HYBRID GAME

Don't be so proud. I see many men carrying long irons, some even a 2-iron! Even the guys on tour are starting to carry more hybrids. The women I coach aren't worried about how 'tour' their golf bag looks, they just want to make the game as easy as possible. Many will bite the bullet and transfer to easier clubs that are more forgiving at the first opportunity. If men did this without worrying about what their playing partners would say, they'd save a bunch of shots.

STRETCH IT OUT

Men can learn a lot from a woman's ability to rotate. Men are in the gym pumping iron to get biceps like Rory, when what they really need to be doing is getting out their Yoga mat and improve their flexibility. If they could do this by just a fraction, they'd receive fewer injuries and gain more rotation thanks to an improved torque for a longer and straighter golf game.

PLAY WITHIN YOURSELF

Every now and then golfers should look at where they insist on playing from when it comes to tee boxes. I know many high handicappers that insist on playing from tees that just make the game harder than it needs to be. The introduction of gender neutral tees at clubs will help men feel that it's ok to go from forward tees. I think many beginners/high handicappers, or even older male golfers would get so much more from golf if they just swallowed their pride and teed it forward.

REMEMBER TO ENJOY IT

I see so many men get super frustrated with their golf, yet they keep plugging away with enjoyment levels plummeting on every outing. Women are good at reminding themselves why they play golf and seeking to improve their games if things aren't going well. I believe many men lose sight of why they play golf. They suffer for a long time before finally booking a lesson, which is often a technical swing lesson when they don't have any intention of practicing.

Women embrace the social enjoyment and group coaching far more than men, yet men have an amazing laugh when they do take part in group lessons with me. I say to all men out there, get a group together and book in with your PGA pro. Or, one step better, get booked onto a coaching holiday, sun sea and socializing whilst gaining a better game - I call that winning. Three things women get from golf are a support network of close friends, enjoyment and pleasure in just being out there, and smiles.

THE METICULOUS APPROACH

Women are more likely to be very sure they have the correct grip, alignment and positioning over the ball. They can be very precise in the way they apply what they've learnt in lessons. Men could learn a thing or two about being methodical and remembering to adjust the mindset or posture before shots without taking a long time.

Men could also learn from the organization of a woman's golf bag, which is a wonder to behold. High energy snacks, water or energy drinks to hydrate, tissues, sunscreen, lip salve, spare gloves, the list goes on. You see far less sunburnt women on the course than men.

TEMPER TEMPER

You rarely see a woman lose her rag and hurl a club down the fairway after a poor shot. There's a lot to be said about the ability to crack on and regain focus after a disappointing shot. If men could let it go sooner, that poor shot and the reaction to it, is far less likely to affect the next few holes. The art of deep breathing and slowing your heart rate down is always taught in Yoga and Pilates classes, and I would urge any golfing man to not just add some breath work into their lives but perhaps even a few classes. It could be life changing.

I do believe this works both ways. There are plenty of things that women can learn from men. I wish more women cared less about their golf and worried less about the effect they may have on others. If more women could gather the confidence to just rock up to a corporate day having not played for decades and throw themselves into the game, the business and golfing worlds would be far better balanced.

Much can be learnt from both sides. But what I'd urge men to do is to play more golf with the women at their clubs and vice versa. Learn from each other because let's face it, in golf as in life we never stop learning.

A Message from the National Office of ASGA

Your chapter newsletter follows after the following pages . . .

ASGA Annual Dues are $99.00. Do you want LOWER DUES?

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE ONE YEAR OF FREE DUES?

You likely joined the American Singles Golf Association because you wanted to meet more singles and play more golf. We can't help you with your golf swing, however, we're on a mission to grow your chapter's membership. Golf season is upon us . . . are you onboard to grow your chapter or are you satisfied with your current membership level?

Here's the plan:

1) on the following page, you'll see a revised "Single? Play Golf?" sign. It now has five (5) tear-off tabs instead of eight (8).
2) You write-in your identification (either your member number or first initial + last name) on each of the tabs. Use scissors to cut the tabs apart.
3) You print as many signs as you wish, keep them in the front seat of your car along with some push pins and post them anywhere you're permitted to post, e.g. golf shop bulletin boards, golf shop restrooms, driving ranges, stores, etc. If you would like ASGA National to print five (5) yellow signs for you, please let us know by emailing Irene@SinglesGolf.com or calling 980-833-6450 from 9am-1:45pm, M-F, Eastern.
4) For every three (3) people who join using your name or ID on the yellow sign, you'll receive 12-months of ASGA membership. Note: your name or member number, as the referrer, must be submitted with the new member's application. No exceptions. No retroactivity. Please do not add your own name to an application form. It must be completed only the by the member currently joining and completing the application.
5) New members can join over the phone, at our website (SinglesGolf.com/join), fax, etc., however, they MUST use your member number or name at the time of joining as the person who referred the new member. Again, no exceptions to this policy.
6) ASGA National will keep track of how many new members you get credit for and will automatically add 12-months to your membership. Please, no slanting of these rules

Be a Hero in Your Chapter.
Get the signs printed and get them hanging!
(and remind others to participate)

IN ADDITION, WE CAN SEND YOU FREE BUSINESS CARDS!

As you have seen from the previous two (2) pages of this newsletter, ASGA National is committed to seeing your chapter grow. We believe by asking each individual member for help, your chapter will grow its membership.

Besides using the yellow signs to gain more members in your local chapter, upon request we will also provide you with ASGA business cards. More can be sent to you if needed, but we'll start out by sending you half a dozen business cards that you can give to anyone you believe might be a potential member. Are you out and about and see someone wearing a golf shirt or hat? Start a conversation: tell them you're a part of a local club for singles who play golf and simply ask "are you single?" Even if they aren't, chances are they know a golfer who is. Give them a card that's pre-filled with you name (or member #) and contact info.

Remember, you get free dues for referring 3 new folks who join!

They don't come to you automatically, you'll have to order them. E-mail Irene@SinglesGolf or call 980-833-6450 (9am—1:30pm, Eastern Tues-Thurs) for your free cards.
